Fr. Paul writes:-

Every parish has a responsibility and a duty to seek out and invite those who are not with us full members of the Catholic Church to "come and see" (the Gospel of John chapter 1 verse 35) These are the words which Jesus said to Andrew when he and another disciple first met him. That invitation is being made today to anyone who is interested in discovering more about becoming a Catholic here in St. Gregory's parish to come to an open meeting in the Hall on Monday evening at 7.30pm. In the Gospel account the next stage in the process is when Andrew invites Philip to come along. And that's where many of you might be instrumental and in inviting someone you know to join us. That person could be your spouse, your friend, your neighbour. Invite him/her and come along with him/her.

Every parish relies on the support of its members to take part in the different sacramental preparation programmes. We are presently looking for more parents to join others in the Holy Communion programme for the coming year. Those who offer themselves find it a rewarding experience. To find out more, there is a meeting in the Prebytery on Wednesday at 7.30pm. Sr Joanna, Fr Paul and our present catechists will be at the meeting.

PARISH NOTICES

SVP News

I read a quote from St Vincent de Paul recently that described the Christian message of 'Faith in Action' very well - 'Charity is the cement that binds communities to God and persons to one another'. What a great image of the importance and value of the works of charity carried out by the people of the parish each week. We continue to receive regular donations to the Foodbank and to our coin-box in the wall, and for all these we are sincerely thankful. Rest assured that all our resources are being passed on to the needy amongst us the moment we become aware of need. If you, or someone you know, would like to strengthen the cement between our parish and God, and between ourselves, then why not come along to our next monthly meeting, Monday evening 8pm in the hall - we are always looking for new members in order to build a sustainable SVP team - have a think! Finally, and as always, if you know of anyone in need because of loneliness, illness, poverty or homelessness then please contact Gillian or Paul O'Regan - Mob 07563 775 777 - info@svpsouthruislip.org.uk - God Bless.

Catechists Needed for First Holy Communion

We are blessed to have wonderful catechists in our parish, but there is always room for more! There is a meeting on Wednesday 5th July at 7.30 pm in the Presbytery for any adults who would be able to assist with the 1st Holy Communion preparations. Please do consider this seriously and come along if you are able to assist.

Baptism Preparation

Tuesday 11th July 8pm in the Church hall. Please telephone Gillian at the Presbytery as these meetings are by appointment only.

Request for Garden Equipment

We are looking for petrol or cordless hedge trimmers and strimmers. If you have one in good condition that you no longer use or need and would like to donate it to the church please drop off to the Presbytery any weekday morning or speak to Fr. Paul and we can arrange to collect it.
