14th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C - Mass Book page 105

Fr. Paul writes:

By the time you are reading this a group of us will have been to Deacon Daniel's Ordination to the Priesthood in his home parish of Scunthorpe. The ceremony is a very impressive one and for a number it will be their first experience. One outstanding moment is when the person to be ordained lies prostrate on the floor while we sing the litany of the Saints. Another is the ordination itself when the Bishop lays his hands on the head of the candidate and all the priests present do the same. After the prayer of ordination the bishop and all the priests welcome Daniel with the Sign of Peace. Then Daniel is vested in the robes of a priest. I hope we will be able to get some photos of the ceremony so that those unable to be there will see what happened

It's very fitting that today's Gospel reminds us of the call to service that God makes not only to Daniel but to all of us. I hope that when Fr. Daniel comes among us next Sunday (11.00am) that we will all be able to share his joy and also celebrate the call we all have to be "missionary disciples" of the Lord. Jesus.

(If by any chance you have not got around to contributing to the parish presentation to Fr. Daniel—it's not too late! Please let us have your gift as soon as possible.)
