Fr. Paul writes:

My sincere and heartfelt thanks to you all for your love and support last weekend at the funeral of Fr. Alan. Many of our visitors remarked on the friendly welcome they received and the hospitality shown to them. The whole event was a demonstration of what a parish and a Christian community should be! Alan's family (his sister Enid, his brother-in-law Mike and his nephew, Stephen) were quite overcome with the response of so many people in joining them for the funeral and in sending messages of condolence and Mass Cards.

Three of us travelled to Lancashire for Alan's burial on Wednesday which was preceded by a short service in one of his favourite churches in Wigan where he had served Mass as a young man and latterly celebrated Mass as a priest. He was buried with his parents in a cemetery overlooking beautiful countryside. May he rest in peace.

This coming Tuesday we begin a Journey of Faith programme for anyone interested in becoming a Catholic and for Catholics who want to catch up on their faith. It will begin with a DVD presentation on Tuesday evening at 7.30pm in the Hall. If you know of someone interested please give them an invitation card (available in the church porch) and better still, come along with them to the meeting.
