29th Sunday of Year A - Mass Book page 143

Fr Paul writes:

Thank you not only for your loving support in recent weeks but also for your generosity in responding to a number of appeals. The Charities appeal at Fr Alan Aston's funeral came to £1200 (to be shared by The Michael Sobell Centre and The Women at the Well) and last weekend you gave £732 for the work of Missionary Sisters. There will be a few week's break before the next appeal on 9th November for our Sick and Retired Priests' Fund!

November is the month for remembering in our prayers and at Mass all our loved ones who have died. Envelopes and lists will be given out this weekend. We ask you to complete and return them as soon as you can so that they can be put on our Book of the Dead which will remain in front of the altar for the whole month and those listed will be included in the prayers of every Mass during that month. May I encourage all those who can to come to Mass during the week and join in the prayer of the whole Church for all our dead.

We have had notification from our local Church of England Church, St. Mary's, in The Fairway of a special Flower Festival in remembrance of all those killed in the First World War. It will run from Friday 31st October (10am-8pm), Saturday 1st November (12noon-7pm) and Sunday 2nd November (11.30am-6pm.) St Gregory's will be contributing a floral presentation.

I shall be away on retreat during the School Half-Term. I will be joining a number of fellow-priests in Lisieux and you will all be remembered in our prayers.
