29th Sunday - Year B - Mass Book page 146

Fr Paul writes:

“Teach us to pray” is a six-session programme on the life of prayer. It begins this Monday at 7.30pm in the Church Hall. We will be joined by members of St Mary’s, The Fairway. Each meeting will last one hour and there is a beautiful booklet which provides not only material for the programme but also suggestions for further prayer at home (or in the office!) during the week. Please give this invitation some serious thought. All are very welcome.

We are taking further steps in re-establishing a St. Vincent de Paul Society conference. Some 15 parishioners have shown interest so far which is very good. Because most of their work will be with people in need we are required these days for them to be cleared by the civil authorities. This takes a little while to sort out. So we are hoping to have our first proper meeting on Monday 7th December. If you are interested in joining please contact me as soon as possible.

Work on the Church roof is scheduled to begin on Monday but the roofers have not yet appeared! I am anxious that the work starts soon before the onset of winter. It should take four weeks but as most of us know, planned programmes of work are always on the optimistic side. You will be kept in the picture.
