2nd Sunday of Advent - Mass Book page 85

Fr Paul writes:

What a great start to Advent with your wonderful and generous response to the appeal for The Women at the Well. Your gifts will bring a little light into the lives of women many of whom are trapped in modern-day slavery. Please remember them and those who are trying to help them gain their freedom in your prayers. Those prayers are as important as your gifts.

The focus this weekend is on young homeless people in the Borough of Hillingdon. More information about them, the centre where they live and how we may help them will be given at Mass today.

Next week's appeal is for the Hillingdon Foodbank. There is a list below which gives the foods they would like to have. Please do check it so that they receive appropriate items.

THE ADVENT GIVING TREE

WEEK TWO: 7th DECEMBER - HOMELESS YOUTH IN HILLINGDON - Buy a special request bauble or make a donation - after all Masses this weekend.

WEEK THREE: 14th DECEMBER - HILLINGDON FOODBANK - Cereals, soups, tinned fruit & vegetables, canned meat/fish, biscuits, sugar, pasta/rice, tea/coffee, UHT milk, jam, sauce/gravy, non perishable puddings (custard etc)

WEEK FOUR: 21st DECEMBER - THE PASSAGE - bic razors, new male and female underwear, shaving foam, thermal underwear-long johns, mens trousers/jeans small size 30/32 only.

Please bring your gifts on the appropriate Sunday. Many thanks.
