Fr Paul writes:

In two weeks' time we will celebrate the beginning of the Church's year and the season of Advent, the time of preparation for Christmas. As usual we will have our Advent Giving Tree as a reminder of our duty to help others, particularly those in need, to have a share in the joy of the great feast. Over the four weeks of Advent there will be an appeal each week for a different charity. This year we will be supporting:

WEEK ONE: 30th NOVEMBER - WOMEN AT THE WELL - a charity which helps support vulnerable women in the Kings Cross area. We would like gifts of gloves, thermal socks and small toiletries.

WEEK TWO: 7th DECEMBER - HOMELESS YOUTH IN HILLINGDON Providing young people with a Christmas gift - you can collect a bauble.

WEEK THREE: 14th DECEMBER - THE PASSAGE - for homeless people near Victoria - underwear, socks, deodorants, chocolates, sportswear, men's trousers (waist 32-34).

WEEK FOUR: 21st DECEMBER - HILLINGDON FOODBANK (non-perishable food items, toilet rolls, toiletries & nappies)

Please bring your gifts on the appropriate Sunday. Many thanks.
