4th Sunday of Lent - Parish Mass Book page 164

Fr. Paul writes: Today, as well as being the Fourth Sunday and the half-way stage of Lent is also Mother's Day. I would also like it to be more inclusive since not all women are mothers. A way of doing this might be to link it with the great feastday we had last Tuesday—the Annunciation—which in this country had an ancient title "Ladye Day". So hat's off first to our mums but then to all the many wonderful women who have been a significant part of all our lives!

We are now moving steadily towards the Great Week of the Year. You will find all the times of the services in the Holy Week & Easter sheet being given out this weekend. Please look at it now and see how you can arrange to be part of these important ceremonies. By taking part in them you will truly experience the joy of Easter.

Holy Week & Easter is a special time for ALL Christians. There will be a special service on Good Friday morning at 11am in St. Martin's Church, Ruislip for everyone and I hope that there will be a good representation from St. Gregory's.

Many thanks to all who completed the Census forms last weekend. We can now update our records and have means of contacting you when necessary. There are forms in the porch for those who may have missed out. Please complete them and give them to me or Fr. Alan.

Stations of the Cross - Friday 4th April - 7.00 pm

Church Spring Clean!- Saturday 12th April 10.30 am

Can you spare an hour or two to help us clear out a number of areas in the Hall and in the Church? Many hands make light work and also foster folks getting to know each other!
