6th Sunday of Easter - Mass Book page 270

Fr Paul writes:

This month sees some very important celebrations involving the younger members of our parish. Yesterday (Saturday) and the following two Saturdays 32 children will be making their First Holy Communion. As all of us who have experienced such an event know the memory of that celebration is one which lasts with us throughout our lives. So, it's congratulations from all of us to those children and to their families. It's also congratulations to Jenny West and her devoted team of catechists who have lovingly and carefully prepared the children over the past few months. It has been an enjoyable and worthwhile experience for all concerned.

In a few weeks' time 17 young people will be confirming and be confirmed in their faith at the celebration of The Sacrament of Confirmation. They, too, have been prepared by a group of committed catechists with Cecelia Bolger as their leader. Our thanks to all of them and to the candidates and their families.

Both these sacraments are reminders to us of the journey of faith we have as Catholics and of the importance of preparing well for these significant moments in that journey. Over the summer two couples will be exchanging their marriage vows at St Gregory's. Your prayers are asked for all who will be part of these great celebrations!
