All Saints Day - Year A - Mass Book page 184

Fr Paul writes:

The month of November is a month of remembrance for all who have died. As Catholics, our way of remembering is through the sacrifice of the Mass. It is a very wholesome thing to write a list of all your departed ones which will be added to many others in our Book of the Dead—it is even better if you could make a special effort to come to a weekday Mass and join in the prayer of the parish for all who are on our lists.

Of special significance this year will be the worldwide commemoration of the outbreak of World War One. Our local Anglican Church, St. Mary's in the Fairway are organising a Flower Festival this weekend on that theme. St Mary's will be open (today Sunday) from 11.30am until 6pm. It would be good if folk could pop in and support our fellow Christians. One of the floral presentations has been arranged by our flower people!

In Westminster Cathedral on Thursday 6th at 5.30pm there will be the Annual Mass for Deceased Priests of the Diocese. Special mention will be made of Fr. Alan RIP. All the priests of the diocese have been invited. But everyone is very welcome.

It won't be long before we celebrate the season of Advent. We plan to have our Advent Giving Tree and an opportunity for each of the four weeks of the season to focus on a particular charity. It would be wonderful if a different family/couple were responsible for each week. You can get further information from Gillian Harrington (contact details above) or from Fr. Paul.
