SVP News

First of all, the SVP team would like to wish you all a very Happy and Holy Easter season, and a continued 'Thanks' to those who support us week in, week out. Following the Easter Triduum ceremonies, perhaps you are experiencing a renewal, or re-igniting of the Holy Spirit within you? Many people do, and then ask themselves how they can put their new-found energy into action. Volunteering with the SVP might be one answer!! As mentioned last week, our efforts at helping those suffering from Hunger or Loneliness are now well established and bearing wonderful fruit. We now need to make these results sustainable by building a team with strength in depth. If you would like to join then just get in touch!! And then we need to ask how we can help the Homeless and Imprisoned - so lots of work to think about, if you'd like to join in! Finally, and as always, if you know of someone in need of the SVP's help then please contact Gillian or Paul O'Regan - Mob 07563 775 777 - info@svpsouthruislip.org.uk - God Bless.
