The Most Holy Trinity - Mass Book page 83

Fr Paul writes:

The Christian image/picture of God, when compared with other religions, is unique. The Church proclaims that there is One God, revealed in Three Persons. This declaration was formulated some three hundred years after Jesus' (The Second Person) life on earth. It was the result of much debating, prayer and reflection. It was put together in the light of the Scriptures (both the Old and New Testament) which spoke of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit and as a community that related to each other in love. Pope Benedict (now retired) wrote his first letter to the Church entitling it "God is love" and in it to try and show us the consequences of that wonderful insight and teaching. We have a God who is not remote, uncaring, unloving. We have a God who calls each of us to come and share in His Life, who entered our human existence and identified with human life in all things but sin, and who has promised to be with us continually until the end of time and finally to share with us the glory of heaven. Today is a day for us to marvel in God!

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FOR ALL PARENTS WHOSE CHILDREN ARE IN YEAR 5 OF PRIMARY SCHOOL

OR

WHOSE CHILDREN WERE BORN

BETWEEN 1st SEPTEMBER 2011 AND 31st AUGUST 2012 (inclusive).
 Please collect a letter from Fr. Paul today regarding applications for Secondary School for September 2016 or for Primary School for September 2016.
 The reason for this change of process is to give me time to prepare a fair reference for you and to alleviate for you one or two of the requirements placed upon you as parents
