Fr. Paul writes:

The stained-glass windows of our Church looked at from the outside in the daylight are not remarkable, but from the inside are a world of wonderful colours. The mystery of The Holy Trinity, which we celebrate today, has something similar about it. It can be made into a cold abstract doctrine, instead of the glowing centre of our life. We must approach this mystery with Jesus himself, in order to enlighten our lives.

We are so small and weak on this earth of ours, this cradle from which we look to the unreachable stars. But one day someone did come to open up our horizons. Rather than focus totally on himself, he directed those he spoke to to his Father, from whom he held his very being. Those who lived with him and heard his word could not understand it straight off. When he disappeared from their sight, having loved them as no one else had done, they found they were not abandoned. An inner strength, his Spirit, guided them towards the complete truth of him whose path they had shared for a time. It was like an ongoing unveiling of what he had said and done once and for all—the discovery, as it were, of the Christian meaning of history and God's plan of salvation.

Christianity points us to the divine because it reveals to us that we share in the life and love of God, the Blessed Trinity.

SVP News

Just a reminder that there are a small number of places (running out fast) left on the St John Bosco Summer Camp!! We mentioned a few weeks ago that the St John Bosco Summer Camps are held in Essex from end of July to mid August - boys and girls are accommodated on separate weeks and Transport to and from the camp is provided. If you know of a child (boys 8-13yrs, girls 9-12yrs) who would benefit from a week in a safe environment of supervised fun, games and laughter, in the countryside, then please let the SVP Team know ASAP in strict confidence - contact details below. Thanks to the generosity of the St Gregory's congregation, your SVP Conference is able to fund a small number of places this year. And another reminder - the SVP Cream Teas Afternoon is being planned for 3pm on Saturday July 6th. It would be lovely to see a good turnout there!! To close, as always, please remain 'Aware' of need and just let us know if the SVP's help is needed in any way. The SVP Team can be contacted on Mob 07563 775 777 and on email at info@svpsouthruislip.org.uk God Bless Paul O'Regan.

Church Cleaning

Could you spend an hour on Saturday morning to assist with the cleaning of our beautiful church? Our regular group meet every Saturday at about 8.30am. Please do come along if you can and lend a hand. We are especially short of volunteers during the holiday season so please do consider coming along and lending a hand. If you would like to help but can only do a different day or time please contact Gillian in the parish office.
